

Cliff Bungalow-Mission History Book

"Think back on the days of old, reflect on the years of age upon age. Ask your father and he will inform you, ask your elders and they will tell you." (Book of Deuteronomy)

Book Project, Part I:

Research & Documentation, September 2012 to September 2013

Book Project, Part II:

Book design, insertion of memories & photographs: August to December 2013

Final editing and publication: November 2013 to March 2014

Book Launch: CBM Lilac Festival May 2014

Topics:

Settlers of the area

Religious Institutions, Schools, & Community Services

Residential Development

Business area – 4th Street businesses and changes over time

Ethnic and Cultural Groups – French, Jewish, Irish, others

Transportation: CNR, Calgary Municipal Railway/CTS, Bridges, Street Names

Notable Residents – families, community contributors, characters

Miscellaneous – sports, past-times, etc.

You can help the project team by:

Submitting names of families and/or individuals that lived in the area through several generations, or were well known, and/or made contributions to the community's well being

Submitting write-up(s) of memories of living in or near the Cliff Bungalow/Mission area, e.g., school days, sports, shopping/doing business on 4th Street, taking the street car, skating at the Glacier

Submitting photos of houses, institutions, businesses, people (with appropriate identification). (Mark your name, address, phone number on back of photo.)

Suggesting additional topics that could be included in the book

Volunteering